Letter dated 27 January 2014 from the Chair of the Burundi configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission to the President of the Security Council

In my capacity as Chair of the Burundi configuration of the Peacebuilding Commission, I visited Burundi from 13 to 17 January 2014 as part of the Commission's regular engagement and, more specifically, to follow up on the Conference of Burundi's Development Partners that took place on 29 and 30 October 2012 in Geneva and to prepare my briefing to the Security Council. Let me seize this opportunity to thank you for inviting me to brief the Council on 28 January on the situation in Burundi. In accordance with the usual practice, I am hereby sharing my report on my most recent visit.

I would like to thank the Government of Burundi for receiving me and for the spirit of trust and dialogue it has shown; the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Burundi, Parfait Onanga-Anyanga, and his Office for their ongoing exemplary cooperation; and the Peacebuilding Support Office for its continued support.

I remain at the disposal of the Security Council to provide further information and clarification, as may be required. The Burundi configuration is ready to accompany Burundi and to inform the Council of developments relevant to peacebuilding, as appropriate.

(Signed) Paul R. Seger
